YOUTH DEVELOPMENT WORKER (PART TIME) INFORMATION PACK

September 2023

Introduction

Dear Candidate

Thank you for your interest in joining Springboard as a Youth Development Worker (part time).

At Springboard, we're very proud of the work we do to help young people and adults increase their choices and opportunities. We work alongside and support our participants as they navigate their development and feel privileged to be part of their journey.

To create safe spaces, deliver needs-led learning, and build meaningful relationships that impact positively on people's lives, we count on a highly motivated and committed staff team. That's where you come in!

The Youth Development Worker will work with young people aged 16-24 years to support them to build and develop life skills that foster good relations, build confidence and employability. You can find out a lot more about the role elsewhere in this document, and much more about the organisation on our website springboard-ops.org

We're as keen to develop our staff as we are the young people we support, so this role offers a great opportunity for personal development and growth.

Our values and our participants guide us in everything we do, so if you are as passionate as we are, about using your experience to support young people, we would love to hear from you.

Angila Chada

Executive Director

Who are Springboard?

Springboard are changemakers, committed to building a society that develops and strengthens capacity, promotes citizenship, better values diversity and increases mutual appreciation across all people.

Over the past three decades we have remained focused in supporting young people and communities from areas facing disadvantage.

We are committed to:

- empowering people and communities and supporting growth where the future offers choices, opportunities, and advantages.
- supporting a re-invigorated sense of belonging and responsibility for where we all live.
- contributing to a society that is inclusive and values mutual understanding and diversity.

Making a difference and focusing on being the best we can be, in all we do, is the lifeblood of the organisation. We believe in always being responsive to changing needs and times.

We are now looking for a Youth Development Worker (part time) who will support 16-24 year olds on their personal, good relations and employability journey. Applying a youth development approach throughout the programme will be key.

At Springboard people are at the heart of all we do. We measure our worth through the positive experiences of our participants. Our staff are committed and passionate in supporting change that lasts for the participant and community. As a Youth Development Worker you will join our team and be part of making a difference to the lives of our participants.

What we can offer you!

- a competitive salary at £28371 pro rata
- 3% pension contribution
- childcare vouchers scheme
- paid comprehensive induction
- 25 days per year, plus 12 statutory days pro rata
- travel mileage
- laptop & mobile phone provision (if appropriate)
- wellbeing & development days
- support & supervision
- team meetings for shared learning & practice
- continuous professional development including non-managerial support and half day per week release for approved training
- organisation volunteer days, and
- an enjoyable workplace!
